THE LONGEST HATRED

A family portrait of a Jewish wedding in German-occupied Belgium during World War II. A Nazi decree required Jews throughout the Reich to wear a yellow star of David badge. THE LONGEST HATRED, a two-and-one-half hour special airing on PBS on Wednesday, April 21, 1993, during Days of Remembrance Week, explores the persistent prejudice that casts Jews as outsiders and threats to society. THE LONGEST HATRED is produced by WGBH Boston and Thames Television.
